So what's it all about?

Our non-surgical Ultrasonic Liposuction makes losing inches from areas of your body such as your belly, hips, arms, legs and back easy! Those stubborn fatty areas of your body you would like to change will become flatter and firmer, in as few as 12 sessions of completely painless Ultrasonic Liposuction. You will be massaged, twice a week with ultrasound by our qualified, experienced consultants, ensuring you are looking and feeling fabulous!

We use Ultrasound technology similar to the kind used to carry out baby scans in hospitals, we even use the same gel. During the painless therapy all you will feel is a nice, warm sensation. This warm sensation is the fat turning to liquid and beginning to drain from your body.

As the Ultrasound passes through the fat cells inside your body it causes them to vibrate against each other, this causes the fat inside to change from a semi-solid state and to become a liquid. Once liquefied, the fat will begin to drain from the cell. The fat then passes through the lymph node system and exits the body through the digestive system in the normal manner. The fat will continue to drain from the body for the next 72 hours. To maximise lymph drainage and achieve the best results we recommend a 10 minute session on our Vibration Plate after each treatment.

Your consultant will chart your success and let you know exactly how many inches you have lost since your last session by measuring your target area before each treatment. We expect clients will need somewhere between 8 – 12 sessions per area to achieve their goals. You should allow 30 minutes per appointment and 3 days should be allowed between treatments.

Cops 'keeping open mind' on fatal crash

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

POLICE said they are 'keeping an open mind' about a fatal hit-and-run.

A 19-year-old cyclist, named on floral tributes as 'Delaney', was pronounced dead at the scene after being hit by a car in Vincent Road, Luton, on Wednesday at 4.30pm.

Friends created a Facebook page in his memory which attracted more than 1,700 'likes', but rumours about the circumstances surrounding the incident were quick to circulate.

A 26-year-old man who was arrested on suspicion of causing death by dangerous driving has since been released on police bail pending further investigations.

A spokesman for Bedfordshire Police said: "We are keeping an open mind as to the background of the incident. All enquiries are ongoing and we would urge anybody with information to contact us on 101 or text information to 07786 200011."

On Thursday evening there were rumours on both Facebook and Twitter about widespread disorder taking place in Marsh Farm in response to the collision.

Bedfordshire Police have confirmed that a small group were congregated in the area, removing household bins, shouting and being abusive towards residents, and that two reports of minor damage to cars were also received.

However, the group was quickly dispersed and no other reports of disorder were reported. Officers will now continue to patrol the area in the normal way and police say there is no intelligence to suggest this behaviour will be repeated.

Chief Inspector Rob McCaffray, said:

"We have some local officers on the ground to provide reassurance for local people who became extremely concerned."

"However, this was a minor incident which was quickly brought under control by officers at the scene."

"It has been suggested that this behaviour is in response to the fatal road traffic collision in Vincent Road which happened on Wednesday night."

"I would reassure anyone who is concerned about that incident that the police are doing everything they can to track down those responsible."

"The Bedfordshire, Cambridgeshire and Hertfordshire Major Crime Team is conducting a thorough investigation into the incident and I would urge anyone with information to speak to the police or contact Crimestoppers, anonymously."

"What people must not do is take the law in to their own hands as they will find themselves arrested and in custody themselves."

"If any members of the community are concerned about what is happening in the area I would strongly advise that they do not listen to rumours circulated on social networking sites or other forums."

"They should contact the local policing team who will provide them with factual information."

Probe into sex attack on patient in hospital

POLICE are investigating an alleged middle-of-the-night sexual assault on a patient in a hospital ward.

The attack is alleged to have taken place on Ward 3 of Luton & Dunstable Hospital at 4am on Tuesday.

The police were called. Officers attended, took statements and are investigating.

No arrest has been made at this stage.

In a statement the L&D said: "We can confirm that Bedfordshire Police are investigating an allegation by an adult female patient of assault by another adult female patient on the ward, who was in a confused state."

"Hospital staff immediately asked police to attend the hospital when the patient raised the alarm and counselling support was arranged."

"Staff are working closely with the police to assist them with the investigation into the complaint."

A police spokeswoman said: "An offence of sexual assault was reported to us which we are investigating."

Caravans at park

A GROUP of travellers removed bollards to settle at a field this week (pictured).

Around ten caravans were first seen on the green on Leamington Road, Luton, on Monday afternoon.

It is thought that a number of wooden bollards intended to prevent encampments on the grass had been removed so that the vehicles could enter.

A Luton Borough Council spokesman said: "The usual legal process has taken place and the travellers have been evicted from the Bramingham site.

"The clean-up process has been carried out and the site has been made secure."

Ten-year jail term after man is left scarred for life

BY JULIA SUTTON

editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

A WOMAN who left her victim with a permanent scar on his face after throwing china and crockery at him was jailed for ten years.

Laura O'Reilly, 25, believed wrongly that Alistair Blackburn, of Brantwood Court in Brantwood Road, Luton, had 'grassed' her up for an attack by her in which he had suffered bruising and black eyes, Luton Crown Court heard.

She went to Mr Blackburn's flat the next day with her then boyfriend Andrew Tonks.

The door was not locked and Mr Blackburn, a vulnerable man with alcohol problems, had china and crockery hurled at him by O'Reilly.

It caused a scar on his face that will be with him for the rest of his life.

Tonks, 33, helped her clear up the mess before they took the victim back to a flat in Bury Park.

They made him watch boxing matches on a video before somebody else took him home and an ambulance was called. Mr Blackburn had suffered serious blood loss.

He was so badly injured that his teeth could be seen through the wound in his left cheek.

O'Reilly, of Helen Dixon House, Alcester Road, Moseley, West Midlands pleaded guilty to wounding with intent on July 12 last year and assault by beating on July 11.

Tonks, of no fixed address, was jailed for 12 months at an earlier hearing for assisting an offender.

Jailing her Judge Richard Foster said he accepted she had a drink and drug problem but he told her: "You thought, in your terms, he was a grass.

"You and Andrew Tonks, your then boyfriend, went to Alistair Blackburn's flat.

"The door was insecure. You laid about Mr Blackburn mercilessly.

"It is clear from the evidence that you threw china and crockery at him in a revenge attack.

"The injury was so serious he will have a large scar on his face for the rest of his life."

Warning as arsonist on the loose

A BLAZE at a house is being treated as arson.

Quick-thinking neighbours called the fire service at 3am on Thursday after somebody set alight an accelerant which had been put on the front door of the house in Cowridge Crescent, Luton.

Police are now appealing for witnesses to the fire, which seriously damaged the vacant house.

A spokesman for the fire service said: "Crews from Luton and Stopsley attended the scene in the early hours of Thursday, where a fire in a doorway was brought under control in 20 minutes.

"The blaze is thought to have been started by deliberate ignition."

Detective Constable Gill Cowley said: "Thankfully, no one has been seriously harmed as a result of this arson attack but there has been significant damage to the property.

"We need to catch the person or persons who committed this offence as soon as possible and stop any further serious incidents from occurring.

"I would really like to hear from anyone who was in the area at the time of either offence, or from anyone else who may have information – however small or insignificant they think it is.

"That could help us. Don't dismiss your information as unimportant – even tiny details which don't seem relevant now might become useful later on in the investigation."

If you have information relating to this incident, contact DC Cowley, in confidence, on 01582 473273.

Alternatively, anyone with information can contact Bedfordshire Police on the non-emergency number 101, or text information to 07786 200011.

You can also give information anonymously via the independent charity Crimestoppers by contacting it on 0800 555 111.

Michael Lewis's wife Elizabeth Moskwa with a photo of Kenya who was killed when attacked by four dogs

Cat mauled to death by dogs

BY CARL MUNGABI

carlmungabi@lutononsunday.co.uk

FOUR dogs mauled a cat to death in a vicious attack.

Michael Lewis, of Butterworth Path, Luton, said he was told by his children the dogs began attacking his cat – named Kenya – while being goaded on by their owner.

He said his teenage son, who was in the house at the time, came out to confront the owner and they had an angry exchange before the man left.

His son then tried to help the dying cat and, as he was crouched down, the owner of the dogs – who were not on a leash – returned armed with a hammer.

It was at this point that one of Mr Lewis' neighbours, who had been witnessing the whole incident, rushed out to intervene.

Both men then had a brief verbal exchange and the man made further threats and walked away.

Mr Lewis said he was at the hospital with his wife during the attack.

He said: "Our cat was eight years old and we've had her since she was a kitten. She was a very sweet, loving cat that was loved by everyone including the neighbours.

"It's heartbreaking for the family because it's like something is missing.

"Sometimes we are expecting her to be there when we come back from our shopping. It's really hard to take in."

Mr Lewis said he is 'disappointed' at how the police, who say there is not enough evidence for an arrest, have handled the case.

He added: "The police have been pretty poor and pretty bad. I am disappointed and angry that a guy can come to my son with a hammer and nothing has happened.

"I want action to be taken against the guy because carrying a weapon is a criminal offence.

"If it wasn't for my neighbour who intervened, my son could be dead. Why didn't they ask the neighbour involved to identify the suspect?"

A Bedfordshire Police spokeswoman said: "After the investigation we located several witnesses. However, no-one could identify the suspect involved."

"We have spoken to a person who the victim thought was involved. However, there is no evidence to support an arrest at this time. If any members of the public can help the police pursue this inquiry they can contact Bedfordshire Police on 101."

Young girls were sex attacker prey

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

PERSUADING a 14-year-old girl to perform various sex acts has left a man facing jail.

After meeting the girl at a wedding they both attended, Alex Harradine, 26, of Grosvenor Road, Luton, contacted her a number of times by phone or over the internet.

The mother first became concerned in August 2010 when passing her daughter's bedroom and overhearing the girl tell someone over the phone what time she left for work.

The mother said she asked who she had been talking to and was told it was Alex, who she said was a boy from school.

Harradine called back, only for the phone to go dead when the mother answered, but then rang again and spoke to her, claiming he had been talking to her daughter about different mobile phones he could let her have.

He later changed his story and claimed that while he had been out of his room, friends of his had sent messages from his phone and his computer to various people.

But the mother found a high volume of contact between her daughter and Harradine by phone and over the internet.

Her mother called the police, and the girl disclosed to an officer in a recorded interview how Harradine had asked if she would give him a 'blow job' when he visited Stratford and he had performed sex acts on himself in front of his webcam.

But further investigations uncovered the fact that he had also abused a girl in Luton when her parents had used him as a babysitter when she was aged nine or ten.

Harradine pleaded not guilty to five charges of causing or inciting a child to engage in sexual activity, one of causing the girl to watch a sex act and one of sexual activity with a child.

He also denied attempting to sexually assault a younger girl while babysitting and two charges of causing or inciting her to engage in sexual activity.

But a jury at Warwick Crown Court took just under an hour to find him guilty of all ten charges.

Judge Marten Coates, who adjourned sentencing, said: "I think he's a dangerous man."

He added: "We need to see what danger he poses to other youngsters. It will be custody, but I don't know for how long."

Hooded gang attack man

A MAN was attacked and robbed by a gang as he made his way home from work.

The 34-year-old victim was walking along Moor Path in Luton at midnight last Sunday when a group of five men punched him in the face and knocked him to the group before stealing cash.

The victim attended hospital where he received treatment for his injuries, including stitches to his right eye and severe bruising to his face and body.

The gang are described as five well built men, aged between 27-30, wearing dark hooded tops over the heads and it is believed four of the men spoken with Asian accents and the fifth spoke with an Eastern European accent.

Anyone with information about this crime can contact Detective Constable Joanna Bossom, in confidence, on 01582 473152.

A popular brush with the law

A UNIVERSITY graduate has had a piece of art chosen to hang in a new state-of-the-art police building.

Sophie Gresswell, 21, from Luton, graduated with a degree in Painting & Drawing from The University of Northampton this summer.

Her large painting showing a face behind shattered glass was chosen to feature in the main stairwell of the Criminal Justice Building at Brackmills, Northamptonshire. Sophie said: "The inspiration came about from a university trip to Berlin. We saw a smashed phone box and the glass fragments of the toughened glass were beautiful."

Andy Tomlinson, estate projects manager for Northamptonshire Police said: "Well considered artwork is part of the wider design strategy for any new police building."

Rewarding those who make a difference

LUTON'S Best is all about thanking those in our community who make a positive difference to the lives of others sometimes while facing challenges and difficulties of their own.

Many people in our town give up their own time to help others.

They make a massive contribution to all of our lives and often we don't know about or acknowledge their efforts. Luton's Best Awards is the opportunity to say thank you.

One of our most inspiring awards is Child of Courage. Each year the nominees have impressed with their stories of bravery and selflessness.

Last year's recipient of the award, Courtney Walsh (pictured receiving her award), had a particularly amazing story to tell of how despite facing illness and numerous other challenges her priority and focus is not herself but helping others especially in her school.

This award is open to any young person up to the age of 18 who has battled against the odds, shown courage or overcome adversity in their own lives to help others.

Many organisations, projects and charities rely on raising money to enable them to do their work. Therefore fundraisers play a vital role.

Luton's Best is looking for the Best Fundraiser of 2012. This award is for people of any age who have in the past year made an outstanding contribution through their fundraising efforts and initiatives.

In 2011 the award went to Sanum Ghafoor who successfully raised more than £15,000 to offer young people a range of free social, educational and recreational activities and training programmes.

She also organised campaigns to raise funds for school projects and the East Africa Appeal.

The Leisure and Culture Award is to recognise individuals and organisations that have excelled and inspired others in the areas of sport, arts, leisure and heritage. Last year this was won by team BEDS & LUTON, the County Sports Partnership, for their Get Back Into programme, which encourages adults of any age to revisit a sport that they used to do or to try a new one. The partnership has worked with many sports clubs and associations to deliver a variety of sessions that are fun and affordable.

A new award for 2012 is Best Volunteer. Luton's Best have recog-

Victor 'targeted'

SIR - I read your front page article on Victor Cowell's private email address that was found by Joyce Yearwood and Ken Gordon on Victor's computer.

Doesn't it come to something when people we trust can enter our emails and pull out jokes forwarded by other people then send them to the newspaper for publication with the aim of damaging someone's reputation?

The real reason for Victor being targeted by Marsh Farm Futures is because he has highlighted two people earning £100,000 between them and doing a very poor job for residents.

He's pointed out that MFF have a board of 11 or 12 people entrusted with monitoring the work and benefits to the residents who have failed to ensure residents benefit from the process.

It is the Marsh Farm Futures directors who should be the ones to resign.

Over £250,000 was set aside for residents, not one penny has been spent on them as the money has been instead taken in wages by the CEO and his sidekick.

A £10 million building is almost empty with no procedure for local residents to benefit or use the empty room space, no youth engagement happening over the whole summer, and Marsh Farm Futures staff claiming work of others such as the council and Active Luton's play park as their own.

This is the real reason for MFF targeting Victor.

It is a shame that Joyce and Ken do not support residents who highlight such concerns.

Mr Nelson,
Thrales Close, Luton

Attendance 'pretty good'

SIR - Labour Councillor Hazel Simmons rather missed the point in her comments (page 5, Luton on Sunday, September 2) on the attendance record of Liberal Democrat councillors.

It is understandable she would want to have a go at us but the fact remains our attendance record at council and community meetings is pretty good.

Since the article was about councillors' pay, it is a pity she forgot to mention the 87 per cent pay rise she awarded herself just three years ago.

Cllr David Franks
Leader, Liberal Democrat group of councillors

'Scaremongering' claims

SIR - Your September 2 article on potential plans for the Bedfordshire police dog section once again show the Labour candidate's lack of understanding of police and policing and particularly the role of Police and Crime Commissioner.

On one hand his only policy is to fight cuts and privatisation, and on the other he acknowledges the need to find savings in the current economic climate.

The last Labour Government left this country with nearly £2 trillion debt costing us all £120 million a day in interest alone. It is precisely because of Labour mismanagement

Political correctness has gone too far

SIR - I read with growing bewilderment and some anger at your front page report that certain people had found a joke email offensive and that the guy whose email account from where it had escaped was being ostracised and even asked to resign his position with Marsh Farm Community Forum.

This PC nonsense has gone far too far when we can't laugh at ourselves and each other.

There's very little humour that doesn't pillory somebody or some group.

When I was a child nearly every joke began: 'So there was this Englishman, Irishman and Scotsman...'.

They were clearly 'racist' jokes but I was never aware that anyone was hurt or offended by them.

I am English - right back to Henry VIII's time apparently - and I always found the jokes where the English were the 'victims' were the ones which amused me most.

We English know that foreigners think our food is boring, our dress sense lacking and that we are aloof and unfriendly.

But although we wouldn't necessarily agree with them we can still see the funny side. Similarly, Catholics and Jews have been at the sharp end of jokes since forever - but I've never seen them take offence.

The 'victims' of the email in question happened to be Liverpudlians - but a few years back very similar jokes were being made about 'Essex Girl' and before that just 'blondes'.

So for goodness sake lighten up all of you, and be mature enough to be able to tell the difference between a joke and an intended insult.

Ron Turvey Stanmore Crescent, Luton

ment that we need to cut. Their scaremongering candidate is not only misleading the good people of Luton and Bedfordshire but also attempting to interfere in the police's operational duties without any previous experience.

The role of Police and Crime Commissioner is to protect the public, to engage with the public and to be answerable to the public for cutting crime and keeping them safe.

The future Police and Crime Commissioner will do well by telling the Chief Constable 'what to do' rather than 'how to do it'.

Jas Parmar
Police and Crime Commissioner
Candidate for the Conservative Party

Difference of opinion

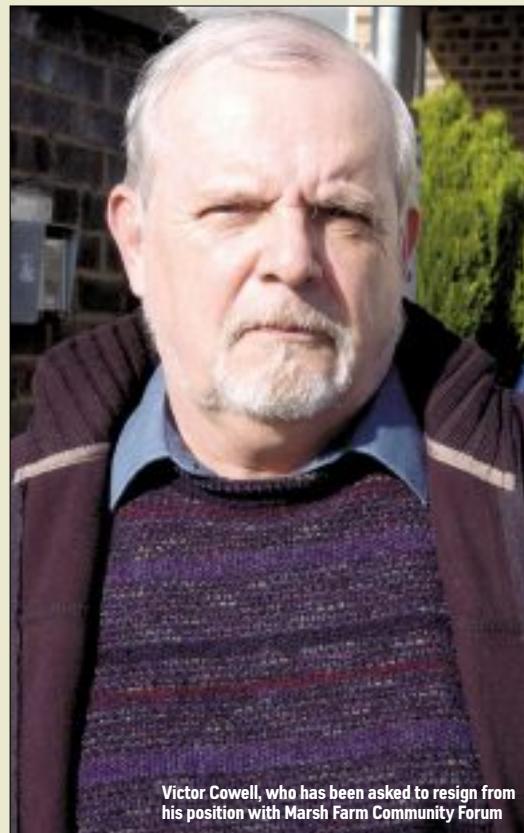

SIR - I enjoy Steve Lowe's column but I beg to expand on his opinions of the Royal Family (LoS September 2).

Queen Elizabeth II has indeed 'worked her socks off' for the UK in the manner she thinks appropriate.

She has however failed to uphold her 1953 Coronation Oath at which time she promised to safeguard our laws and customs.

She has signed every one of the EU Treaties she has been presented with over the years so that now only about 80 per cent of our laws are made in Parliament, the rest are just EU diktat coming from the EU Commission in Brussels.

EU membership has made our food much dearer. Our industry is Victor Cowell, who has been asked to resign from his position with Marsh Farm Community Forum saddled with complying with EU red tape.

Our fishing industry has been wrecked - good fish are thrown back dead into the sea to comply with EU quotas.

We have little control over our borders thanks to the EU. Treasury figures show that the UK Government has increased its payments to EU institutions even as ministers prepared to cut money for programmes including hospital construction.

In 2008/09, Britain's net contributions to the European budget was around £2 billion.

In 2010/11, the Treasury estimated the cost of EU membership to be £6.5 billion.

Governments have often been asked to carry out a cost/benefit analysis of our EU membership but always sidestep the issue. I wonder why.

It is sometimes claimed that our nation has no constitution at all - how convenient for unscrupulous politicians.

We do in fact have a very ancient constitution based on Magna Carta, and the Declaration and Bill of Rights - however it is not taught in school. Why?

Politicians tell us that the monarch has no option but to sign any law passed by Parliament but neither the Monarch, the Parliament, the EU or the UN or any other body has the power to destroy British Constitution.

As for the naked photos of Prince Harry. He is a serving officer of the British Army as well as a Royal Prince who has brought both his family and his army regiment into disrepute. Will he be court-martialed? Don't hold your breath.

Robert Theobald
Hill Close, Luton

Give out jobs warning

SIR - Before immigrants are allowed into this country, the Government should warn them that we are in a recession. There are no jobs or houses.

Schools and hospitals are overstretched. Food, petrol and energy prices are soaring beyond affordability. It will be years before our economy is back on track. Great Britain is not a place of milk and honey. More like brown ale and marmite.

Meanwhile, the Love Luton Festival made a loss of £394,000. Luton Borough Council is not at fault. Blame it on the Olympics. The council, like many others, across the country, got sucked in by the Olympic fever. Now it's all over. We are left with paying all the bills.

John Tucker
Bracklesham Gardens, Luton

G4S jobs plan

■ I have worked in the NHS for 40 years and the biggest mistake ever made was to outsource to private firms. The outsourcing by the police will be a huge disaster to the way in which police operate in this country - nothing short of a pure scandal. I am surprised that the powers that be have not got the intelligence to see the G4S disaster during the Olympics. I guess it's the same old story as long as my job is secure I will play the political game. Shame on you people - you are clearly without morals or principles.

'Top heavy' forces could be thinned out to save cash...

MORE chiefs than Indians was one of my dad's favourite phrases.

He was usually referring to some form of national or local government operation, which he felt were full of people sitting in meetings and taking decisions but short on those who had to carry them out.

I am sure it still feels familiar to many these days, not least the police force.

Bedfordshire, Hertfordshire and Cambridgeshire forces are collaborating on many areas of policing. Collaborating, like the word efficiency, is shorthand for cuts. It has also come to mean privatising, as that is becoming the preferred option for each scenario.

Need to make cuts to our back office functions? Privatise them and let the private companies make the efficiencies - although the words efficiency and G4S don't automatically sit together well. The latest part of the force to be privatised looks to be the specialist dogs and their handlers. These are the dogs that sniff out drugs, firearms and explosives. Just the sort of thing you would want run by private companies, especially as the dog handlers will be civilians and not able to arrest anyone.

I can just see them asking the drug dealer if he would mind standing still while assistance is summoned. And there will be fewer dogs and handlers, which is the main reason for doing it, so 24/7 cover will no longer be a reality. And, of course, they will be travelling from further away. All sounds pretty daft and saving money in this way will undoubtedly worsen the service we receive and give a boost to the criminal elements among us.

So, is there no alternative? Of course there is. Keep the Indians and lose a few chiefs.

Three forces are collaborating and all three forces are getting smaller as a result. Except at the top. We still have three chief constables, and each chief constable has a deputy and at least two assistant chief constables. In Bedfordshire we also have an assistant chief officer and part of another assistant chief constable. And, of course, come November, each force will have an elected Police Commissioner, being paid at least £70,000 a year.

What will they do every day? As the three forces, by the time they have finished with them, will all be able to fit in a telephone box, for those who can remember what one of them looked like, it hardly seems necessary to have three chiefs, three deputy chiefs and a small army of assistant chiefs, all in discussion with three Police Commissioners. I put this to the Police Authority, who told me that current legislation stipulates that police forces must each retain a chief constable and a deputy chief constable.

Well I think that the Government, which is pushing through these cuts, is hardly placed to change the law, if they so wish. Best to do it soon, though, while they still have a working majority. And isn't all the rage these days to have flatter structures and get rid of all the hierarchy? So, by thinning out the top we can save money and still have a decent police force. There is an alternative.

So the shuffle has come and gone. And it was a shuffle, as second-rate cabinet ministers moved around the table like some slow motion game of musical chairs.

The phrase moving the deckchairs around on the Titanic comes to mind. Cameron seemed afraid to get rid of any of them. Even Ken Clarke, who lost his job, is still in the cabinet. As the old saying goes, perhaps the Prime Minister would rather have him inside the tent peeing out, than outside peeing in.

The policies haven't changed, the people haven't changed.

And, if the economy doesn't change, they will all be shuffling off into obscurity in a couple of years time.

Parents in court as daughter goes on run

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE parents of an 'on-the-run' mum who defied a UK High Court order to return to Lanzarote with her son were summonsed to court to swear they did not know of their daughter's whereabouts.

On July 29, we reported that Marie Roche (pictured), 33, had 'fled' Lanzarote with her four-year-old son and was staying at her father John Roche's home in Luton to escape a relationship she claims was abusive.

But the High Court ordered Miss Roche to return to Lanzarote by July 7 under The Hague Abduction Convention, which is European law.

She did not obey the order and has refused to go back and has disappeared with her son.

Since then, her parents John and Maureen Roche have been summonsed to the Royal Courts of Justice where they were asked to swear under oath that they did not know the location of their daughter and grandson.

John Roche said: "All we know is that they are both safe and okay, apart from that we know nothing."

"Marie is quite upset that the term 'on the run' is being used to describe what she is doing as it sounds so negative when all she is trying to do is protect her son."

Support for the case has come from Luton North Labour MP Kelvin Hopkins, who has written twice to the Lord Chancellor.

Francis Steer, Labour Party organiser, said: "Kelvin wrote to Kenneth Clarke, the Lord Chancellor, at the beginning of August to ask if the Government could seek changes to the Hague Convention - which covers judgements in these issues - to give more discretion to judges, especially where the welfare of a child is concerned."

"Kelvin had not had a reply by the end of last month and wrote again to Mr Clarke."

"Mr Clarke has since been reshuffled from the Ministry of Justice."

Advice service will celebrate its 20th birthday

LUTON'S Citizens Advice Bureau will this week celebrate 20 years of helping people with their debt and welfare problems.

The King Street branch opened its doors in 1992 and on Wednesday the Mayor of Luton, Councillor Syd Knight, will host a special reception at the Town Hall to honour the staff and volunteers for their vital service. The mayor will make a presentation to the chairman of the CAB's board of trustees to reflect the town's appreciation of their dedicated work.

More than 75 people work for the branch, which makes it one of the biggest and busiest in the region, helping 20,000 people with 30,000 enquiries per year.

Chopper's relocation

THE helicopter service for Bedfordshire Police will be moved from its current Henlow base to a site believed to be in Oxfordshire later this month.

Currently it is shared with two other forces, Hertfordshire and Thames Valley Police, but with Bedfordshire Police officers now extending their duties on the ground into two neighbouring counties (Herts and Cambridgeshire) the question remains – is our force becoming stretched? Luton on Sunday found out more.

The head of Bedfordshire Police Authority, Peter Conniff, admits that the response time of the chopper will suffer after the relocation.

He told Adam Thompson: "Operational issues may play a part.

"It's common sense that if a helicopter that had been located in Henlow is being moved to, as I understand it, Oxfordshire, it is going to take longer to get to call-outs.

"I'm not saying it will hamper our county's police but I am saying it won't enhance them. However it will save money and it will still be in use by our police force."

In the last year Bedfordshire Police's helicopter flew for a total of 319 hours.

It was deployed 887 times and out of those it located the person officers were after 271 times – a success rate of 31 per cent.

MONEY has rarely been tighter than it is right now, and one of the many public sector organisations up against it is Bedfordshire Police. With the force helicopter being relocated to cut costs, ADAM THOMPSON looks at what impact this will have on crime and arrests in our patch

Peter Conniff, Chairman of Bedfordshire Police Authority

It has also been used to seek missing and vulnerable people and in a 12-month period it located five.

Last month the helicopter was deployed to several high profile incidents around the county.

On Sunday, August 19, it was able to track a teenager who clambered on to the roof of Bedford Hospital before making threats to jump.

Another was as recent as Wednesday morning when a 36-year-old woman with mental health issues was sat on the railway line near Arlesey Station. Luckily, she was found before any trains due to pass the station arrived.

Mr Conniff spoke of the chopper's significance: "It is such an important piece of machinery. Its thermal image camera is invaluable and can cover ground far quicker than officers on foot, by patrol car or on the police bike."

But Bernard Rix, who stood as a Conservative Police Crime Commissioner candidate – although he didn't get selected – has spoken passionately about the police's helicopter situation. He said: "As I understand it Bedfordshire Police would be charged for each minute the helicopter is in the air. Where it took five minutes to get from Henlow it may take 20 minutes from Oxfordshire – then you have all the minutes it's in operation and its flight back to Oxfordshire. I think the change will put Bedfordshire Police at a disadvantage."

Recycling with Simply Recycling Solutions Ltd.

So what about the prices then? In my experience; customers are usually six months behind, when the prices are low, you all come in saying "prices are high at the moment" when their high you come in saying the opposite. Most of the time customers understand that the prices go up and down, normally they go down fast then creep up slowly.

So what effects prices? Well imagine the over paid traders in any exchange, ours is the LME or London metal exchange. If a copper mine goes on strike, or if a war or disaster hits certain countries, the jumpy little traders start to panic, their either selling or buying hundreds of tones at a time, for example copper. Mostly they do this worrying about next months bonus. This in turn effects the prices on a second by second basis. Most reputable merchants will link their prices to the Lme. I have customers that come in telling me they believe most merchants seem to "just make the prices up" this I can believe. They do!

At Simply recycling Solutions Ltd, we don't, prices are fixed making them accurate and fair. We never hide prices their on the counter for all customers to see.

At the moment we choose to export our scrap, markets are sometimes better in other countries, this makes the over all price better for the customer, as long as the customer walks away happy, they will always come back. Pop in and see how the professionals do it, oh and bring some clothes, we buy those too.

Man threatened girls with butter knife, court hears

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

A SCHIZOPHRENIC threatened to attack two girls with a butter knife, saying: "I'll stab you right here."

Kristen Silvera, of Olympic Close, Luton, appeared at Luton Magistrates' Court on Wednesday, charged with using threatening, abusive and insulting words or behaviour with intent to cause fear or provoke unlawful violence, and possessing a knife blade in a public place.

The court heard that in the early hours of the morning of August 14, 28-year-old Silvera had approached the girls in Luton town centre to ask if they knew where he could buy some cannabis.

The pair said that they didn't carry on talking to him.

After asking why Silvera was out that night, he replied: "To find girls like you."

"Why the f are you out?"

When the girls said that they were out with their boyfriends and friends, he said: "I'll stab all of them later and you as well here and now."

"Follow me round the corner and I'll stab you right here."

The girls continued to argue with Silvera until he was arrested by police.

Defence solicitor Alexa Clement said: "Mr Silvera has been diagnosed with bi-polar disorder and schizophrenia, and on this occasion had not taken his medication.

"He admits that he had been drinking with his friends that evening and cannot remember this incident, but says that he accepts the statements that witnesses have made.

"However the response of the girls and the fact that they stayed in the area for so long shows that they did not believe that they were in any immediate danger.

"He had the butter knife in his possession as he had lost his house keys, and knew he could get back in to his property by putting the knife in the Yale lock."

The case has been committed to Luton Crown Court, where Silvera will next appear on September 28.

MP backs call for more online safety

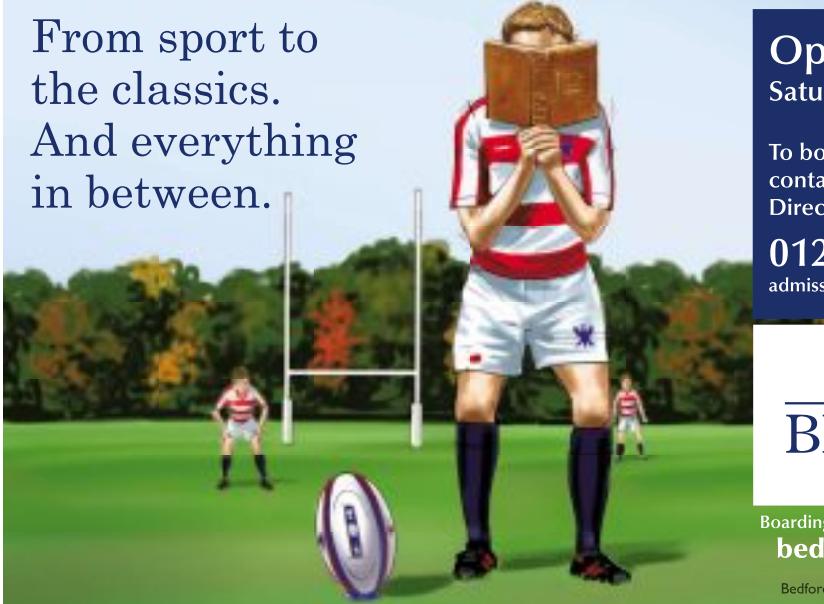

AN MP has handed in a petition to improve online safety with more than 115,000 signatories to Number 10 Downing Street. South West Bedfordshire MP Andrew Selous (pictured) and campaigning group Safetynet presented the petition on Thursday, calling for the Government to mandate that internet service providers introduce a default opt-in filter system for adult content on the internet.

Mr Selous said: "The voices of more than 110,000 'ordinary people' are being heard loudly and clearly at the heart of Government and they are asking for a simple solution to the problem of keeping our children safe online – an opt-in system for adult material."

Pair arrested after train attack appeal

TWO arrests have been made following a police appeal to identify three men in connection with an attack on a train passenger.

The victim of the assault, which took place on August 5 on the 1.33am London St Pancras to Luton train, was left with a broken nose.

A 23-year-old man from Hitchin and a 19-year-old man from Houghton Regis have been arrested on suspicion of causing grievous bodily harm.

Both have been questioned and released on police bail pending further enquiries.

A British Transport Police (BTP) spokesman said: "I would like to thank the media and members of the public for their help in identifying these two people."

Cafe owner is fined over smoke breach

BY CARL MUNGIZI

carl.mungizi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A SHISHA cafe owner has been found guilty of failing to comply with the law by not preventing smoking and fined £1,500.

Customers of Desert's Rose Ltd in Bute Street, Luton, were last year seen smoking shisha tobacco in an 'enclosed public area' by officers from health and safety and trading standards services.

Owner Mohammed Quren, who pleaded guilty but did not appear at Luton Magistrates' Court, was also ordered to pay £3,000 costs.

Although Luton Borough Council provided support and information to help the owner make the area legal, Desert's Rose allowed smoking, putting customers and staff at risk of the harmful effects of exposure to shisha and tobacco smoke.

ADVICE: Councillor Aslam Khan

To remain legal and protect public and workers, smoking must be prohibited in enclosed or substantially enclosed public places. Only an area which is at least half open to the air is acceptable.

Councillor Aslam Khan said: "The council works hard to enforce the law by supporting businesses and offering advice and information about the smoke-free regulations, encouraging them to make changes to ensure they comply with the law.

"Only where businesses do not heed advice is legal action pursued.

"The law is clear and has been in place for some years. It is against the law to smoke or allow smoking where it may expose others to second-hand smoke."

Clifford's loving it at Games

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

A NINE-YEAR-OLD received a once-in-a-lifetime backstage experience at the London 2012 Paralympic games after winning a nationwide competition.

Clifford Coombes, from Luton, won the three-day, all expenses paid trip to the event after taking part in the McDonald's Mascotathon contest.

He logged all of his exercise on the purpose-built website to clock up enough rainbow power to be one of the 100 youngsters to bag the dream prize.

As part of the gift, Clifford was given the opportunity to soak up the atmosphere at a Paralympic event and met retired basketball Paralympian Kevin Hayes.

After winning his prize he said: "I am very excited I'm getting the chance to go to the games.

"I really enjoy sports in my free time and my favourites are archery and swimming. The thing I enjoyed most about my trip to London was staying in a hotel and getting to meet one of the athletes."

Clifford's older sister, Vanessa, who joined him on the trip said:

"The whole family is so thrilled about Clifford's triumph. We travelled from Luton to London for the prize, with the highlight being the chance to watch one of the events and meeting an athlete.

"I think was more excited than Clifford."

A UNIVERSITY professor has waded into the controversial defeat of Oscar Pistorius in last Sunday's Paralympic T44 200m final.

Professor John Brewer, director of Sport at the University of Bedfordshire, said the row highlighted the 'need for the authorities to ensure that they have regulations in place to cope with advances in technology in sport' following Pistorius' post-race claims on Channel 4 the blades of race winner Alan Oliveira were too long.

Tina's on TV

A TEACHER will be appearing in a reality programme on potential house-buyers next month. Tina Hollingworth, a tutor at the Care Professions department at Barnfield College, has just finished filming for Channel 4 in which Sarah Beeny helps people to renovate their properties in the hope of having a bid submitted for it. The mum-of-two was approached by a production company who had spotted her Luton home for sale on Right Move. She was then offered £1,000 to use a little creativity to make a small change to the Wardown Crescent abode that might attract a buyer. The show will be screened on More 4 in November.

School looks at age limits

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

A LOWER school is canvassing the views of residents on proposals to extend the age range of its pupils by two years.

Houghton Regis Lower, which currently caters for three to nine-year-olds, hopes to look after children up to the age of 11.

The plans have been to align its age range with a number of other schools in Houghton Regis which are changing the existing three-tier pattern of lower, middle and upper schools in the area to a two-tier primary, secondary model.

This initial consultation invites comments on the proposals from parents, staff, and the community.

Central Bedfordshire Council is advising the school on the consultation process to make sure they are following legal requirements and their proposals are in line with Government and council guidance.

Councillor Mark Versallion said: "Above all we want to raise standards and results for all our pupils.

"We will consider any proposals by schools that will meet these aims as long as they can show that this is what parents want, that the new arrangements will meet the needs of all pupils including those with special educational needs and the changes can be achieved within existing resources."

Anyone who wants to know more can attend a public meeting at the school, in St Michael's Avenue, at 6pm on Friday to give parents and others the chance to find out more and ask questions.

This consultation will end on October 8, when the council's Director of Children's Services, Edwina Grant, will consider the results and decide whether to progress the proposals to a final stage of statutory consultation.

If the proposal is approved to proceed to this final stage of consultation, parents, carers and other interested parties would have a further opportunity to put forward their views as part of a formal six week statutory consultation period.

The final decision will be made in a public meeting in December so that headteacher, governors, parents and all other interested parties are fully aware of the factors that are considered as part of the process.

The proposed changes could be implemented from September 2013.

THINKING OF RETRAINING?

AS WE begin to emerge from the recession, there are still many people who are left unemployed. Thousands of people are still unable to find work in the field where they had plied their trade for most of their professional careers. However, one in five adults intends to gain further qualifications with colleges reporting increased enrolments, according to a study by YouGov. The survey of more than 2,000 adults last year found that in excess of 8.4million people have switched careers in the previous three years and a further 3.2million intended to do so in the year after.

Money was a deciding factor in 2/5 of respondents. Even if you are trying to get back into the same field of work as you were in before, it is still a good idea to gain more skills.

Training courses are run at colleges, universities, private course providers, advice centres and adult education centres. If you are not working, you may be entitled to financial help with your fees and if you cannot commit to a timetabled course or would rather work at your own pace, you can enrol in a distance learning course.

Now enrolling for September 2012

RETURNING TO LEARNING

THERE'S always a second chance in education.

If your schooling days are ones you would rather forget, then now's the time to make it right. Even the smallest things like working out the discount in sales are much easier if you've got the right qualifications.

Adult learning may be something you've never considered but it can give you new-found confidence and will really boost your skills. Courses are easy to fit round your day-to-day lifestyle and it's also a great way to meet new people. Learndirect has helped more than 2.8 million people gain new skills and nationally recognised qualifications. It's easy to sign up to an online maths or English course and other courses start at prices as low as £21.

It's worth checking though to see if you're eligible for funding as these courses may then be available at a cheaper price. Local colleges also offer a range of courses to help you out. People of all ages take these courses so don't feel as though you're going to be stepping into a school full of young people. If you regret not going to university then it's never too late to get a degree. The Open University has developed programmes which can lead to a range of different qualifications and they're all flexible to suit you. If you're looking to get back into work, you may be able to take part in the New Deal or other programmes for unemployed people. If you want an informal and confidential chat about improving your skills, call the Government-funded Get On helpline on 0800 660800.

Lee's on the road to mark his 50th birthday

COMEDY

LEE HURST - TOO SCARED TO LEAVE THE HOUSE

Old Town Hall Arts Centre, Hemel Hempstead
Wednesday, September 19, 8pm

AFTER a ten-year absence and a few warm-up dates, Lee is back on the road with his brand new show Too Scared To Leave The House.

The former star of BBC's They Think It's All Over will cast his comedy eyes over the many end-of-the-world stories from Acid Rain and Global Warming to Bird Flu and Mad Cow Disease.

He will muse over the everyday dangers that face us in our daily lives.

Lee has taken time out during his 40s to run his Backyard Comedy Club in the East End of London, but with his 50th Birthday around the corner, he can't wait to get back on the road and connect with his UK audience again.

Fans have already communicated their excitement through social networking and members of the younger generation are now discovering him through their parents.

Tickets for the event cost £15 and you can either book online at www.dacorum.gov.uk or call the box office on 01442 228091.

MUSIC

THE BAY CITY ROLLERS STORY

Harpenden Public Halls, Harpenden
Friday, September 21, 7.30pm

THE Bay City Rollers Story is a celebration of those hectic days of hit songs, touring, TV shows and the behind-the-scenes pandemonium that followed the band everywhere they went.

Renewed Les McKeown has come through the extreme highs and lows of life's great road and he is here to tell us all about it.

All the hit songs are there and audiences are promised a night of fun and nostalgia as they take a trip back to those innocent days of growing up to the sounds of The Bay City Rollers.

Tickets for The Bay City Rollers Story are £19.50 and can be obtained from the Harpenden Public Halls Box Office.

For further information and bookings call the box office on 01582 767525 or visit www.harpendenpublichalls.co.uk where full listings and online bookings are available.

FILM

THE FLOWERS OF WAR

The Alban Arena, St Albans

Tuesday, 7.30pm

IN 1937, Nanking stands at the forefront of a war between China and Japan.

As the invading Japanese Imperial Army overruns China's capital city, desperate civilians seek refuge behind the nominally protective walls of a western cathedral.

Here, John Miller (Christian Bale), an American trapped amid the chaos of battle and the ensuing occupation, takes shelter, joined by a group of innocent schoolgirls and 13 courtesans, equally determined to escape the horrors taking place outside the church walls.

Struggling to survive the violence and persecution wrought by the Japanese army, it is an act of heroism which eventually leads the seemingly disparate group to fight back, risking their lives for the sake of everyone.

Through treacherous surroundings and facing unimaginable evil, The Flowers Of War, inspired by true life events, manages to tell a genuine story of hope, love and sacrifice.

With nowhere to run and nowhere to hide, fate always has a way of bringing the most unlikely heroes.

Tickets cost £7 (£5 for concessions) and can be bought by calling 01727 844488.

Matthew Rhys

The Scapegoat

ITV1, 9pm

Rebecca, The Birds, Don't Look Now – the works of author Daphne du Maurier have made for some great thrillers, and ITV will be hoping that The Scapegoat is no exception. It's set in 1952, and stars Matthew Rhys in the dual role of John Standing and Johnny Spence, two very different men who just happen to look absolutely identical. Following a chance encounter, former teacher Standing finds himself taking on the charismatic Spence's life, which turns out to include a crumbling stately home, drug-taking mother, unhappy wife and two mistresses.

Citroen DS3

The DS3 doesn't make a very good fist of hiding its light under a bushel. The basic shape of the car is traditional supermini with gentle curves marking its extremities and the wheels pushed out to the corners producing a squat, purposeful stance. The real drama, however, is in the detail. From that 'shark fin' B-pillar and the contrasting roof panel to the vertical strips of LED running lights that flank the front grille and the distinct sill line connecting the wheelarches, the DS3 is ferociously unconventional. It has the look of a concept car but Citroen has built it and you can buy it.

For a modern supermini, the DS3 is relatively compact. It's 3950mm long and 1710mm wide, which is similar to the Ford Fiesta, but Citroen has worked hard to maintain plenty of interior space. The manufacturer claims there's room for five adults with legroom in the rear enhanced by the slender backs of the driver and front passenger seats. In the tail, the boot is 285-litres which is large for the supermini class and 60:40 split rear seats give options for extending that capacity.

The design of the cabin sets out to reflect the cutting-edge exterior and there are upmarket materials in evidence throughout. The two-tone dashboard mirrors the contrasting roof and bodywork outside and the instruments are set into a trio of circular dials, in a motif that appears again in the round clusters of ventilation controls on the centre console.

Hatters buckle after conceding early goal

FOOTBALL

BLUE SQUARE PREMIER LEAGUE
ALFRETON TOWN 3
LUTON TOWN 0

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

LUTON Town slumped to their first away defeat of the season, losing 3-0 to Alfreton in a thoroughly disappointing performance.

Faced with a physical side that stifled their pace and passing the Hatters looked clueless at times, allowing Anthony Wilson to score two, and Dan Bradley to convert a penalty.

Despite the bold decision to make three substitutions at half-time, manager Paul Buckle was unable to shake things up enough for the Hatters to find their way back into the game.

Three changes had been made to the starting line up – Lathaniel Rowe-Turner, Stuart Fleetwood and Scott Rendell making way for new loan signing Jake Robinson, Connor Essam and Adam Watkins.

The Hatters got off to a bad start almost immediately after conceding within two minutes.

Despite assurances the team would be working on their defending this week, it seemed too easy for Anthony Wilson to tap the ball into the net after receiving a low right wing cross.

Neither team was able to gain the majority of possession, and the game turned in a battle of defence versus attack, with Luton unable to create any clear cut opportunities.

Their afternoon took another turn for the worse in the 23rd minute as they found themselves losing 2-0 – Bradley coolly converted a penalty after Dean Beckwith scythed down Nathan Arnold in the box. Alfreton could have had the three points in the bag just before half-time, but were saved by the fingertips of Mark Tyler and the goalpost.

Arnold managed to find enough space in the box to unleash a low strike, which the keeper diverted away.

The Hatters should have clawed one back in additional time, Andre Gray dragging his shot wide after claiming the ball in the box.

With Luton facing an uphill battle, Buckle made three changes at half-time, Yaser Kasim, Connor Essam and Fleetwood replacing Janos Kovacs, Greg Taylor and Adam Watkins.

The changes seemed to have the desired impact almost immediately with Luton starting the second period on the front foot. Chances fell to Gray who dragged his shot wide and Ronnie Henry, whose effort forced the keeper into making a low save.

However, despite an increase in possession and the number of efforts on goal, the game was put beyond the reach of Luton in the 66th minute when Wilson scored his second of the game.

Tyler came out of this goal to clear the ball, but his kick met the waiting Wilson who put his strike into the open goal as the keeper tried to track back.

Luton Town: Mark Tyler, Greg Taylor (Connor Essam), Dean Beckwith, Janos Kovacs (Yaser Kasim), Alex Lawless, Jake Howells, Adam Watkins (Stuart Fleetwood), JJ O'Donnell, Jake Robinson, Ronnie Henry, Andre Gray. Subs: Lathaniel Rowe-Turner, Dean Brill

Attendance: 1,392 (786 Luton)

HOT SHOT: New loan signing Jake Robinson unleashes a strike but without success

FA CUP FIRST QUALIFYING ROUND

BARTON ROVERS 0
ARLESEY TOWN 1

A FIRST minute penalty proved decisive in this all-Bedfordshire FA Cup tie.

The game had barely started when the referee pointed to the spot, adjudging Tommy Hull to have fouled Chris Marsh in the area.

Drew Roberts gave Barton keeper Richard Wilmot no chance with the spot kick.

Arlesey were the better side in the first half but Barton nearly equalised on 45 minutes with Ricky Case spurning a good opportunity.

Rovers were much improved in the second half and created some good chances.

Bobby Dance saw his lob over the goalkeeper cleared off the line, Rhys Hoeneis hit a post with a good effort and Nat Peacock had a good chance to equalise.

It is Arlesey, however, who progress at the expense of their Bedfordshire rivals.

FA CUP FIRST QUALIFYING ROUND

DUNSTABLE TOWN 2
ASHFORD TN (MIDX) 2

THE Blues will be disappointed at the prospect of a tough replay after conceding a late equaliser.

Ashford took the lead on 13 minutes through an Ed Thomas goal but Lee Roache equalised on 28 minutes, getting the final touch in the penalty area after a goalmouth scramble.

The score remained 1-1 at half time and Leon Cashman then gave Dunstable the lead on 65 minutes, latching on to a ball from Roache before firing home.

However, a stoppage time goal from Harry Knock brought the final score to 2-2 which means the teams meet again on Tuesday at 7:45pm.

Dunstable's scheduled game against Hillingdon on that date will now be rearranged.

SOUTH MIDLANDS DIVISION ONE

SUN POSTAL SPORTS 1
CRAWLEY GREEN 5

A FLURRY of late goals gave Crawley Green an impressive win.

They took the lead just before half-time through a Jamie Ward penalty.

In the second half Chris Gibson doubled the lead after being put through by Adam Reid on 67 minutes.

Sun Postal got back into the game when Dan Bunton pulled a goal back on 80 minutes and Crawley Green realised they were not quite home.

The visitors ensured their win though with goals from Reid on 85 minutes, Courtney Massey on 88 and the best goal of the game from Terry Billy in the final minute.

SOUTH MIDLANDS DIVISION TWO

KENT ATHLETIC 0
MURSLEY UNITED 1

IN a game of few chances, a fifth minute goal proved to be the winner.

The newly-assembled Athletic defence failed to deal with a corner and allowed Mursley to score the only goal of a scrappy game.

Goalkeeper Adam Mace made some good saves to keep Kent in the match and Junior George had a couple of good chances but neither team could add to the scoring.

SOUTH MIDLANDS DIVISION TWO

THE 61FC (LUTON) 2
ASTON CLINTON 2

A WELL balanced contest saw 61 trailing at half-time to last season's Division Three Champions, having conceded midfield possession early.

The home side responded in spectacular fashion with a 20-yard Glenn Clarke volley to tie things up at 1-1, no more than they deserved.

The visitors went ahead with five minutes left with a well taken, opportunistic strike, before Bradley Currington replied with a nicely finished headed goal to level the score.

SOUTH MIDLANDS DIVISION TWO

WOLVERTON TOWN 2
TOTTERNHOE 2

TOTTERNHOE are still in search of their first win of the season after a fortuitous draw.

Two late strikes from Adrian Millard and Ross Morrissey rescued a point for the struggling visitors.

Wolverton took an undeserving half-time lead and things got worse for Totternhoe as they doubled their lead on the hour.

However, with time ticking away, Millard's 90th minute effort delivered a lifeline before Morrissey slammed home deep into added time.

Janos: We are good enough to win it

JANOS Kovacs says the manner in which the Hatters are conceding goals is the only thing letting the side down.

Luton Town beat Cambridge United 3-2 during the week, but both of the visitors' goals came from corners, which the defender found disappointing.

Speaking after the match he said: "I'm happy with the three points, my goal and the result, but I'm disappointed with conceding two. Maybe we can say the first goal was unlucky as it was a great strike, but the second was direct from another set piece which is very disappointing.

"We have to keep working on these things every day in training.

"If we do, sooner or later, and hopefully sooner, we will be rock solid and keeping clean sheets.

"We've got great goalscorers and they are doing their job, but if we were scoring goals and not conceding it would look even better. We're working hard so I'm pretty sure it's going to come.

"We're on a very good run, especially doing it this early in the season. It's important for us to win back to back games and stay up there in the league.

"It's all about togetherness. We've got to focus on ourselves and keep picking up points.

"If we do, we will be up there. We know what we need to do, we know that we are good enough to win this league."

Bobby fight is put back

BOXING

BOBBY George's next fight has been put back a week to Sunday, September 23, with the Luton-based boxer now in action at the York Hall in Bethnal Green.

George, who won a bronze medal at the 2004 Olympics for Bulgaria, had originally been due to fight on the Shamrock Promotions show in Norwich this coming Saturday.

However, the unbeaten 29-year-old will now be in action on the undercard of the International Masters light middleweight title clash between Adam Battle and Nathan Graham.

His opponent, Latvian Jevgenijs Kirillovs, remains unchanged for the six three-minute rounds clash.

Great Scott scoops title

GOLF

STOCKWOOD Park golfer Scott Richardson claimed a convincing victory in category three of the yourgolftravel.com Disabled British Open at East Sussex National.

Richardson had finished third in the same category during last year's tournament at the same venue, but this year was in dominant form to take the title.

The 23-handicapper was playing in the event for those with handicaps between 21 and 28, and finished 12 points ahead of the rest of the field.

Richardson scored a total 75 points in the Stableford competition over the two rounds, with Newcastle West GC's Tony Brouder second and South African Jennifer Frost third.

Murphy strikes but Tirrell is too tricky

TUSSLE: Try scorer Ben Murphy on his way to the line

RUGBY

NATIONAL THREE LONDON 1 (NORTH)

LUTON 10
LETCHWORTH 41

LUTON were overpowered in their first home game, losing heavily to Letchworth.

The visitors' winger, James Tirrell, did the majority of the damage with a hat-trick of tries.

Luton's scores came from a first half penalty from Aiden Kenny, then after the break when Joe Murphy broke through the Letchworth defence for Luton's only try of the game.

Luton will be undoubtedly be looking to improve on this performance next week, but they can take heart despite losing the two openers, as they were against two of the league's strongest sides and will certainly be looking to really start their season next week, away to Ruislip.

MIDLANDS THREE EAST (SOUTH)

NORTHAMPTON CASUALS 26
STOCKWOOD PARK 15

STOCKWOOD Park started their league campaign with a disappointing 26-15 defeat.

With the visitors hoping for a victory to kick-start their season, they began positively with much of the possession.

However, Park failed to take advantage of their dominance and superb counter-attacking from the hosts meant they found themselves 21-0 down at half-time.

A Ben Griffin brace and Kieron Logan's solo effort salvaged some Stockwood pride but the damage had already been done.

MIDLANDS TWO EAST (SOUTH)

WELLINGBOROUGH 13
DUNSTABLIANS 27

DUNSTABLIANS' 27-13 defeat of Wellingborough provided a perfect start to the league campaign.

The hosts scored the first points of the game courtesy of a third minute penalty, but when Kevin Boland and Jake Hobbs crashed over in quick succession the D's raced into a 10-3 lead.

If the first half had proved a tricky affair for Dunstablians, the second half was more calming.

Further tries from captain, Stuart Hall and Ashley Warren and a Hobbs' penalty added gloss to a classy visiting performance.

Girls' date with ex-Luton boss

FOOTBALL

KEMPSTON Colts Girls U18s enjoyed a special moment on Wednesday when their penultimate training session before the new season was taken by former Leeds United, Luton and Sheffield United manager Kevin Blackwell.

Team boss Joe Montgomery said: "It was a great opportunity to provide the coaching session for the girls and I wish them well for the season."

with someone of Kevin's experience and considerable knowledge and it should provide us with the best possible start for our first fixture this weekend."

Kevin also did a goalkeeping session with Victoria Caldwell, who has signed for Northampton Town Elite Academy.

Kevin said: "I was delighted to provide the coaching session for the girls and I wish them well for the season."

Buckle tells fans: Sorry it was not good enough

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

PAUL Buckle apologised to Hatters fans after Luton Town gifted Alfreton three points yesterday.

Speaking after the 3-0 defeat, the manager said he was disappointed with the way the team played and that it simply wasn't good enough.

He said: "I think we have to apologise to our fans, because they turned out in numbers on the back of us playing well in previous games and showing a good work ethic.

"To everyone, we apologise because that wasn't good enough and we need some answers quickly. I just didn't see it coming.

"The players know how poor they've been so there is no point going and screaming and shouting after the game.

"We will debrief properly and watch the DVDs of the match.

"There will be no panic but we need to find out why we played like we did and put on such a bad performance.

"With all respect to Alfreton, they didn't do anything weird or wonderful to beat us – we've beat ourselves and gifted them the three points.

"They deserve the win but you've got to look at the whole game and we've contributed to our own downfall today."

Asked if he felt that making three substitutions at half time was a risky decision, he said: "I think we needed to make changes. We weren't at it, we weren't on the front foot and it was hard to watch.

"Nobody could moan that they have been brought off. We got bullied and we made poor errors all over the pitch.

"When you are chasing the game you can get pushed into doing things that you wouldn't usually do as it becomes desperate.

"At half time I spoke to the players and told them we needed to get the basics right but we didn't."

"With a week until the Hatters play Wrexham at home Buckle said he would use the time to understand what went wrong.

He said: "We need to get back on track as quickly as possible."

One of our success stories...

Who: Leslie Carey, 39

Where: The Slimline Clinic Nuneaton

When: 6 Weeks, June 2011

What Happened: Leslie had Ultrasonic Liposuction on her stomach and inner thigh but only lost $\frac{1}{4}$ inch after 1st visit. She then lost $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches after her 2nd visit, before losing 16 inches in total over the course of her therapy.

How: We focussed Ultrasonic Liposuction on Leslie's inner thigh and stomach once a week (1 session on each area) for 6 weeks. After her 1st session Leslie ate take away food on 4 of the evenings, as well as drinking several pints of beer most nights. This resulted in slow progress. However, after only losing $\frac{1}{4}$ inch in week 1, Leslie decided to drink a little more moderately, ate more balanced meals and as a result she then lost $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches between her 2nd & 3rd treatments. Leslie then resolved to adjust her lifestyle, she started eating & drinking in moderation, while making an effort to be more active generally. Leslie went on to lose 16 inches in total over her course which took in 12 sessions each on her stomach & inner thighs.

Why was Ultrasonic Liposuction Needed: Leslie has a demanding job as a director of an engineering firm, this lead to Leslie having a poor diet of take away food & beer, with little activity in her daily life due to a lack of time. Leslie arrived for her 1st session as a size 16, standing at 5' 6" tall

Where are they now: After achieving her target size and shape Leslie had lost 16 inches from her stomach and inner thigh. After completing her course and armed with her improved lifestyle and body shape Leslie felt inspired to take up Exercise! She began walking 3 evenings a week and therefore needed no more sessions to maintain her new size and shape!

The science behind losing Inches & feeling great!

Non-Surgical Ultrasonic Liposuction from The Slimline Clinic makes losing weight easy, especially from stubborn fatty areas like your belly, hips, arms and legs. Better still, it's fast, 100% pain free and can allow you to reach your ideal size in as few as 12 sessions.

Good vibrations

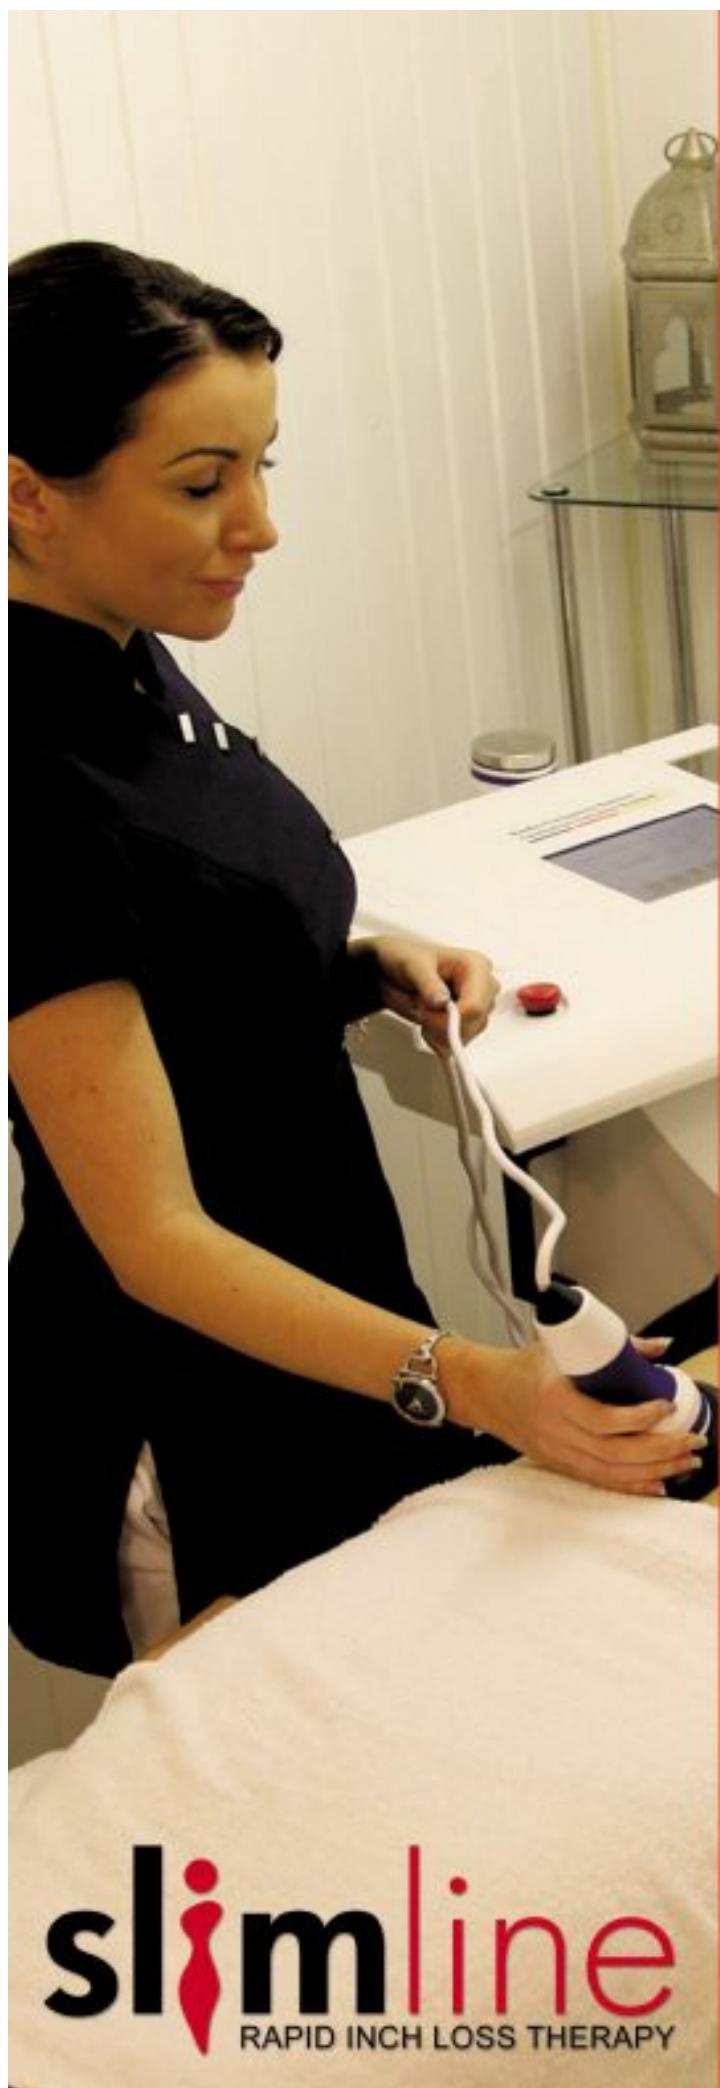

The treatment works using ultrasonic technology similar to that used in ultrasound scanning machines. The frequency of the sound wave targets fat cells, causing them to turn into a liquefied state. This liquid fat then drains away via the body's lymphatic system over the next 72 hours leaving treated areas with a flatter and firmer appearance.

The difference between The Slimline Clinic's Non-Surgical Ultrasonic Liposuction and surgical ultrasonic liposuction is we allow the body to naturally filter the liquid fat instead of making incisions in the patient and using a tool to suck the fat out which can cause pain, bruising and scars.

100% pain free

Our treatments are 100% pain free – in fact you will only feel a pleasant warming sensation at the ultrasound gets to work on your unwanted fat cells.
